

THE TIMES OF INDIA

Tuesday September 15, 2015

Hojai college imparts training to teachers

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Guwahati: The Ajmal Foundation recently organized a two-day teachers' training workshop at Maryam Ajmal Women's College of Science and Technology, Hojai, in Nagaon district.

The workshop was conducted in collaboration with Institutional Excellence Forum (IEF), Delhi, and All India Confederation of Women's Empowerment Through Education, Delhi.

Gautam Raj Jain, consultant to United Nations Organizations, and Arti Ahluwalia, managing director, Baltis Learning and Development, addressed the workshop that focused on "mentorship and

Group discussions were held to help teachers understand their roles as guides, leaders, counsellors and mentors excellence in education and career".

Group discussions and role-plays were conducted to help teachers understand their roles as guides, leaders, counsellors and mentors.

The IEF and Ajmal Foundation are also jointly setting up Career Excellence Forum (CEF) at the Ajmal College of Arts, Commerce and Science to conduct career counselling for students.